Summary

Continue making history with us at the origin of commercial CAR-T manufacturing. We are looking for an experienced leader for our US Cell & Gene Therapy (C>) site in Morris Plains as we enter our next phase of growth. The site has reinvented itself into a multi-product/multi-customer operation serving both Novartis internal products and high-profile external customers as a CMO.

This is a rare opportunity to impact patients as a global supplier of Kymriah, a launch platform for Novartis' next generation CAR-T and scaling up for a growing CMO product portfolio. #LI-Onsite.

About the Role

Key responsibilities:

Your responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Acting General Manager for all aspects of site operations with focus on stakeholder management of a diverse internal/external customer base: Novartis commercial and clinical operations, business development and CMO customers.
- Manages day-to-day site resource allocation, including assets, in alignment with the global C> network and CMO business demands.
- Collaborates across C> to develop and implement network applicable strategies to achieve overall global C> and Novartis Technical Operations (NTO) objectives.
- Partners within CMO business development functions to develop and implement applicable strategies to maximize revenues.
- Improves year over year business results by driving a cost-conscious agenda and initiating innovative solutions. Responsible for performance of the site according to Balanced Score Card by acting in close partnership with the global network and functions including Quality, Finance, Supply Chain, ESO etc.
- Leads people processes through recruitment, training, coaching and performance to meet all operation requirements sustaining both global and local competitiveness and diversity. Creates an engaging environment for associates. Develops a diverse team and builds a strong succession plan.
- Identifies and implements continuous improvement initiatives via LEAN manufacturing, 6 Sigma, Quality by Design (QbD) and a Process Oriented Organization/ Culture to increase the site performance against current and future business objectives.
- Ensures that all aspects of technical operations within the assigned facilities functions are in compliance with Novartis policies and standards in the areas of regulatory compliance, GMP, Health, Safety, Security and Environmental Protection. Also responsible for overall relationships with local Governmental bodies and key stakeholders.

Essential Requirements:

- Bachelor's or Master's degree in a relevant engineering, scientific, or technology field required. Technical Master's degree or MBA preferred. Additional relevant experience may be considered in lieu of degree.
- Fluent in speaking and writing in English. Additional language abilities are an asset.
- 10 years of experience in Biopharmaceutical GMP environment, preferably in Manufacturing, Technical Development and/or QA, including 8-10 years in a leadership role.
- Excellent understanding of the Pharma business and solid industry knowledge, with a good mix of Leadership, Technical and Operational experience.
- Experience working and leading in a global and highly matrixed environment with numerous stakeholders.
- Demonstrated leadership ability to engage and motivate people, empower associates/teams and deliver results.
- Drives a talent agenda and knows how to attract diverse talent to the organization.
- Quality and continuous improvement focus with an understanding of LEAN manufacturing, 6 Sigma, QbD and process-oriented approaches.
