Summary

This is a field-based and remote opportunity.

Every day, cancer claims the lives of thousands of individuals worldwide. However, at Novartis, we are dedicated to transforming cancer care through the groundbreaking use of radioligand therapy. By harnessing the immense power of radioactive atoms and leveraging it against advanced cancers, radioligand therapy holds the potential to precisely deliver radiation to target cells throughout the body.

As a global company, Novartis offers a wealth of resources and opportunities for personal and professional growth. We provide avenues for both global and local cross-functional careers, a diverse array of thousands of learning programs, and an in-house marketplace that facilitates rotations and project work. Our commitment lies in improving patient health by spearheading innovation in the field of nuclear oncology. By 2030, our ambitious goal is to positively impact the lives of one million patients through the application of radioligand therapy.

To achieve this goal, we are actively seeking individuals who share our unwavering commitment and dedication. If you are passionate about making a difference in the lives of patients and contributing to the advancement of cancer care, we invite you to join us on this transformative journey. Together, we can shape the future of cancer treatment and bring hope to countless individuals around the world.

Job Purpose:

In the role of Oncology Specialist - RLT, your primary responsibility will be to generate demand and drive the growth of the Radioligand Therapy (RLT) platform.

To achieve this, you will work within a complex and multi-stakeholder healthcare professional environment, engaging with and coordinating efforts among key stakeholders such as Medical Oncologists, Nuclear Medicine specialists, and Radiation Oncologists. Your role will involve driving clinical conviction and fostering strong relationships with these stakeholders, ensuring they are aware of the benefits and potential of the RLT platform.

Collaboration with cross-functional colleagues will be essential. You will work closely with them to identify and execute business opportunities that align with the overall franchise strategy. By leveraging their expertise and resources, you can maximize the impact of the RLT platform and drive its success.

Your role will involve engagement, coordination, and planning to navigate the complexities of the healthcare landscape effectively. By developing strong relationships and coordinating efforts, you can influence the adoption and utilization of RLT, ultimately improving patient outcomes and transforming cancer care within your assigned geography.

As the Oncology Specialist - RLT, your contributions will play a vital role in driving the growth and success of the RLT platform. By working towards increasing demand by implementing strategic plans, you will help Novartis achieve its goals in revolutionizing cancer care through radioligand therapy.

This field-based role covers the following geography: Stamford, CT, New Haven, CT, Hartford, CT, New Brunswick, NJ, Summit, NJ and the Bronx, NY. For large geographies, the associate must be near a metropolitan airport or live in an adjacent state.

This is a remote opportunity.
